

DESERTS ONE OF THE CITIZENS' CANDIDATES

Harvey Rostiser Endorsed by the Tribune in His Race For City Clerkship—Langel is Cast Adrift.

Following revelation of the fact that Alex. Langel, the citizens' nominee, is a bartender and that he was active in herding in voters in the west end to work for Fred Keller and others to which Dixon W. Place and John A. Swygart took vigorous exception, the South Bend Tribune has thrown him over, and will support Harvey Rostiser, the democratic nominee.

After the anti-liquor attacks on P. A. Joyce, it was admitted that the exposure of the citizens' candidate for clerk had left the leaders of that party in a hole and the endorsement of Rostiser followed naturally.

In announcing its position the Tribune after telling of the clerk's various duties and the qualifications needed by him said:

"The type of man required for this service appears to have been found in Harvey E. Rostiser, democratic nominee for city clerk. The Tribune has endeavored to carefully investigate Mr. Rostiser's record for ability, his reputation and his character and as a result of that investigation has no hesitancy in saying that Mr. Rostiser ought to be elected city clerk if they desire as the governing body of that important office a man who is in every sense competent and who, as the present deputy, already understands thoroughly the duties of the office."

PACKAGE CONTAINED 8 POUNDS DYNAMITE

Station Keeper Didn't Know It for Several Days and Used It as Foot Rest.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Aug. 29.—For two days Col. William Paulus, station keeper at the central police station, rested his feet on a neatly tied package which had laid beneath his desk. For two days Mr. Paulus lit his pipe and threw the matches beneath his desk, and Thursday this same official says that he is the luckiest of mortals. This state of mind resulted when Mr. Paulus investigated the package and discovered that it contained three hundred dynamite caps and eight pounds of dynamite.

A woman entered the station Monday and handed the package to an officer saying that she had found it. The officer not wishing to spoil the appearance of the station keeper's desk, placed the package beneath his desk. It has been impossible for Mr. Paulus to ascertain which one of the officers was so kind as to place enough dynamite to blow the whole police station off the earth, right beneath his feet.

CAN A MAN BE CRUEL TO A RATTLESNAKE?

Question Perplexes Humane Officer Who Agrees That Reptile Refuses to Eat.

INDIANAPOLIS, Aug. 29.—A rattlesnake with nine rattles, whose plump folds have dwindled to flabbiness since he was imprisoned in a glass cage two months ago by C. I. Baker, who caught the reptile in Washington county when on a picnic, kept Humane Officer Merrill "on the go" all day Thursday, and perplexed Humane society officers and deputies in the county prosecutor's office for hours.

"If a rattlesnake is a pet, is feeding mandatory?" was what Humane Officer Merrill wanted to know from the authorities before putting Baker under arrest for cruelty to a rattlesnake.

And it required the expert advice of an animal man to settle the controversy, that worthy's opinion that a rattlesnake is a "cantankerous animal and just out of spite won't eat for weeks after it is placed in captivity," freeing Baker from any further attempt at prosecution.

Mothers! Have Your Children Worms? Are they feverish, restless, nervous, irritable, dizzy or constipated? Do they continually pick their nose or grind their teeth? Have they cramping pains, irregular and ravenous appetite? These are all signs of worms. Worms not only cause your child suffering, but stunt his mind and growth. Give "Kickapoo Worm Killer" at once. It kills and removes the worms, improves your child's appetite, regulates stomach, liver and bowels. The symptoms disappear and your child is made happy and healthy, as nature intended. ENTRY DAY IS SET FOR FARM EXPOSITION

All Exhibits Must be Entered in Fall Show Not Later Than Sept. 29.

Monday, Sept. 29, has been designated as entry day for all exhibitors of produce for the big Farm exposition. All exhibits are to be entered that day and put on display Tuesday morning. This date was decided upon at a meeting of the committee Wednesday in the chamber of commerce rooms.

C. B. Steed was authorized to organize a volunteer automobile boosting squad to make a tour of the surrounding town, advertising the exposition. The first trip will be made Sept. 3.

It was found that in response to the letter sent out by the committee last week that about half the manufacturers of the city had indicated by card or telephone their desire to accept the merchants' generous offer of window space, for the display of the city's manufactured products. It is believed there will be little difficulty in securing a promise to display by the remainder.

Chairman A. H. Rice of this committee was authorized to divide the committee into squads for the personal canvass of the manufacturers, which work will be taken up in a few days.

SHEEP PLACED UNDER ARREST

Police Are Called to Home of Ernest Young to Get the Disturber.

A new kind of prisoner was captured and taken to police station on Thursday. A large ewe sheep which was driven by dogs to the Ernest W. Young residence, 1216 Tecumseh av., was the guilty offender, and was taken by the authorities for disturbing the peace and maliciously destroying property.

Excited by the strange location, the big sheep took possession of the Young residence while the owner was away Wednesday evening. During the entire night she ransacked the porch and lawns, blating and destroying whatever came in her way.

In the morning she began her toilet by dashing into all the cellar windows, cutting her face and tearing her glossy wool. When she saw her image looking back at her through the window she assumed a feeling of anger and bunted into them. The windows were small and she was not able to get through herself.

No trial will be given her. She was not even booked, but unless her owner comes for her she will be compelled to remain in a cell, until the police officials get too hungry for mutton.

CRAWFORDSVILLE DRY BY A 189 MAJORITY

Two Men Released Wednesday Night Arrested When They Attempt to Vote.

CRAWFORDSVILLE, Ind., Aug. 29.—The city of Crawfordsville voted "dry" by a majority of 189 in a local option election held here Thursday. While the election was supposed to be close, the result was no surprise. Three arrests were made.

Thomas O'Neill and Harry Connolly, both "wet" supporters, who were alleged to have been released from jail Wednesday night, a day before the expiration of their sentence, were taken in custody when they attempted to vote. Charles Lewis was arrested charged with buying a vote. He was released on $100 bond.

WILL STAY DRY. PORTLAND, Ind., Aug. 29.—Penn township, this county, voted to remain dry by 152 majority at an option election held Thursday. The vote was 114 to 38.

The elect 1 was practically unnecessary as Ar. A. Kishy, the only applicant for a saloon license, withdrew his request at the August meeting of the commissioners, but having called the election, it was necessary to go through the formality.

MEETING ADJOURNS. LAFAYETTE, Ind., Aug. 29.—The 31st annual session of the Tippecanoe Baptist association adjourned Thursday after electing the Rev. J. B. Henson, moderator; Miss Leota Black, of Newton, clerk; and J. M. Riddle, of Crawfordsville, treasurer.

SI AND MRS. SI VISIT THE CITY

Mr. and Mrs. Si Stebbins, assuming a sophistication that their appearance did not warrant, visited South Bend and told stories to the populace of their various adventures in towns filled with tall buildings, trolley cars and other dangerous things.

Mr. and Mrs. Stebbins should have registered from Podunk Center, but instead they identified themselves as "late of Barnum and Bailey's circus". They claimed to have been the star rube among the clowns with the show and they looked the part.

Mrs. Stebbins wore a full skirt of plain flannel, with purple sash, and a little velvet jacket from which the fur edging had been torn. Her hat was held with a rubber under her tight little knot of hair. Mr. Stebbins was no more stylish than she.

They visited the Oliver hotel and several business houses and played tricks on the folks until they got ready to explain their "circus" work. Mr. and Mrs. Stebbins were advertising a brand of flour and Mr. Stebbins carried a sack of flour about in his arms.

F. HENRY WURZER GUEST AT DINNER

Friends and Fellow Attorneys Gather at Oliver Hotel to Bid Him Farewell.

Friends and business associates of F. Henry Wurzer gathered at the Oliver hotel to partake of a banquet given for him as a farewell. Mr. Wurzer is leaving the city to enter the prominent legal firm of Cullen and Casgrain, Detroit, Mich., of which Postmaster General Burleson was formerly a member.

There were about 40 present at the banquet, most of whom had known Mr. Wurzer intimately for years and who took advantage of the occasion to express their sentiments of high esteem for him and to wish him well on his new venture. The fact that Mr. Wurzer was a faithful worker in the general interest of his profession and that he has done more than any other man in the state to elevate the standard of requirements for the Indiana bar, were brought out in the speeches of several during the evening.

The gathering sent a beautiful bouquet of roses to Mrs. Wurzer, expressing their best wishes, and regret that they must leave the city.

INSTITUTE TO WIND UP SEASON TODAY

"The Future of American Agriculture" Will be the Subject of Dr. S. C. Schumucker at High School.

"The Future of American Agriculture" will be the subject used by Dr. S. C. Schumucker in his address to the teachers at the county institute Friday morning, the final and big day of the week's session. This is the feature lecture of the meetings.

His subject for Thursday afternoon was "The Cud-Chewers." He gave a most interesting account of the history of the cud-chewing animal family. He said that originally they were all grass eating animals of the plains who for the sake of protection were compelled to eat quickly and then seek seclusion, thus developing a pouch in which their food could be stored and afterwards eaten at the animals leisure.

Dr. F. H. Green talked on the subject "Steps and Devices in Composition Work" in the afternoon. His first was the collection of material by the careful use of the eye, ear and nature in books, to build up composition. Second he said the subject should be carefully selected with a thought to the material related to it. The third step is to analyze the subject he said, and proportion the material correctly. Reproduction he called the fourth step in which condensation, combination and amplification should be judiciously used. Original work was his last step. He urged teachers to impress the pupil with the importance of letter writing, saying that it is something that is used by all during life.

CHICKEN COMES BACK HOME TO BE COOKED

ELKHART, Ind., Aug. 29.—A runaway chicken, which it is alleged had been sold and then escaped from its new owner, to return to its former abode there to be cooked and served by the seller, caused the latter's arrest on a charge of petit larceny Thursday.

Justice Brumbaugh acquitted the defendant, Mrs. Victoria Hazzack of No. 807 Indiana avenue. Mrs. Annie Bolis of No. 701 Wagner avenue was the signer of the affidavit.

The story told by Mrs. Bolis is that she bought five chickens of Mrs. Hazzack, who was to leave the city this morning with her husband; that one of the chickens escaped and when she looked for it she found that it had returned to the Hazzack place and had been killed and cooked prepared tory to furnishing lunch for the Hazzacks on their journey. When Mrs. Bolis went to the Hazzack home, she says, she met Mrs. Hazzack carrying the feathers from her chicken out of the door.

MURDER IS MYSTERY. MADISON, Ind., Aug. 29.—The body of Wm. Adams, a young farmer, was found in a cornfield Thursday with a bullet wound in the head. The murder is a mystery. Adams started through the field on his way to spend the night with a sick neighbor.
